LEAMSP

Register's Speech

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

My speech in the third edition of the bulletin was titled "THE JOURNEY SO FAR"; and success is said to be a journey, not a destination. Hence, no matter whatever little feathers we might have added to our hat as an organ of the League of Muslim School Proprietors Worldwide (LEAMSP), better achievements abound in the womb of the morrow; and the best shall forever remain the ultimate target for the succeeding generations to aim at in thought and in deed. "Why LEC?" is a common question among various stakeholders in education business; and the earlier editions of the bulletin

2019 result; a few of the latest achievements of the Council; best performances from the states; CBT update, and registration steps. In less than two years, LEC lost two great members whose roles can never be overemphasized. They both contributed immensely to the success of LEAMSP programmes and activities at various levels across the nation, and were great models to us all as members of the Council. Coincidentally, both of them were PhD students. Adedeji Abiodun Liadi (2007-2014 Deputy Registrar of LEC) was about completing his programme in Malaysia when he died in March 2017; and Tanigbola Nurein was pursuing his at the University of Ilorin when Allah (SWT) recalled his Assessment, at its heart, is said to be about the collection, analysis, and interpretation of information related to a particular issue or outcome of interest. The major issue here is ensuring that learning is actually taking place across the board; and the outcome of our interest is enhanced learning of global standard at all time. With evaluation, we go further to determine the worth,

My special thanks go to the LEAMSP NEC, State and Zonal Executives as well all member school proprietors, teachers, students/pupils, parents, and all other well-wishers whose support and encouragement often spur us to action when the going gets tough.

What reduces my score?

Optical mark recognition (also called optical mark reading and OMR) is the process of capturing human-marked data from document forms such as surveys and tests. They are used to read questionnaires, multiple choice examination paper in the form of lines or shaded areas.

Observation

Though several factors may affect a candidate's performance in an examination, we observed that the use of pencils that were not dark enough for the machine to capture contributed much to the low performance of several candidates in LEC 2019 Exam.

It is our hope that all the teachers saddled with the task of preparing the pupils for future editions of this exam should intensify their efforts towards giving the candidates adequate training on shading especially, to enable them be at their best during the statutory examinations.

In fact, out of the 49 candidates that sat for the CBT, 74% scored above 50%; 20% scored between 40 and 49%; and 6% scored between 33 and 38%. This reflects a much better performance as against the PPT result.

Some of the challenges of the candidates are enumerated below:

1. Failure to use HB Pencil

An OMR reader depends on the dark marks on the sheet to record a candidate's answers. Hence, such marks made on the bubbles are very important. Below are a few of the rules that need to be adhered to while using pencils for marking the OMR sheet.

Type of Pencils Used on OMR Sheets

It is important to use a dark pencil for filling OMR sheets. Therefore, it would be best to use HB pencils (HB, 2HB, 4HB, 6HB). Moreover, you must avoid the use of light pencils like 2H to 6H.

PENCIL GRADES

HB	B	2B	3B	4B	5B	6B	7B	8B	9B
9H	8H	7H	6H	5H	4H	3H	2H	H	F

B= Black HB= Mid Grade F= Fine H = Hard

The light pencils do not provide sufficient darkness to the bubbles, thus making it difficult for the machine to register or record the answer. Though, it is possible to set the machine so that it records light pencil marks, this is a risk that we better not take as it can affect scores by capturing all marks, no matter how faint - including the erased options!

One of the advantages of using pencil on the OMR sheet is that it can be erased if you think you have marked a wrong bubble.

LEC prefers the use of HB pencil to all other grades in filling the OMR sheets for easy capturing and effective marking that will be reflective of the child's true ability.

As 2H synthetic pencils are sometimes labeled HB, we advise the trainers to provide the candidates with the right pencils during practice and for examinations.

Other factors include:

2. Making of unnecessary marks on the shading sheet.
3. Squeezing or rough handling the shading sheet.
4. Failure to completely erase an option that has been changed.
5. Spending too much time on a question.

ANALYSIS

Though the following statistical presentation covers the national and state performances, it is hoped that further analysis on the performances of the zones and schools would soon be accessible on our website. Besides, schools can make special request for the analysis of their pupils' performances over a period of time at a token fee.

Arrangements are in top gears towards presenting the analysis as regards the trend in relation to that of statutory examinations across the board.

Out of the three thousand, eight hundred and sixty-one (3,861) candidates registered for the LEC Exams in 2019, three thousand, eight hundred and thirty-nine (3,839) sat it. This represents ninety-nine point four, three percent (99.43%). Twenty-two (22) candidates representing zero point five, seven percent (0.57%) were absent

2019 LEC EXAM ACHIEVEMENT

Achievements (pencil and paper):

Since LEC adopted the e-marking option in 2014, this has really made a big change in LEC Exams marking system in terms of accuracy and speed.

Pre-numbered sheets:-

In the past, we used to have sheets with the same examination numbers and without names. In this case both the wrong and the right candidates would have no results for the exam. We were able to overcome this challenge in 2019 edition.

Achievement (CBT):

Our First Computer based Test (CBT - offline) - was conducted in Agege in 2017 with 20 candidates. In 2018, 18 student sat for our CBT in Ikorodu.

COMPUTER BASED TEST (CBT)

Unlike the conventional method of pen/pencil and paper test, computer-based testing (CBT) is an examination administered through the use of computers. It poses some challenges to candidates who either do not know how to operate computer or have not familiarized themselves with CBT software environment. Our online CBT practice platform is designed to enable candidates overcome these challenges with ease. It contains the previous past questions and answers of LEC Exams. Just visit our website and start practising.

Note: Check online for our CBT centres.

Why Online CBT?

One of the advances in technology is availability of different modes of CBT: Online and Offline. Both have their merits and demerits; and luckily for us we have tested both and now prefer the online.

Here are some reasons for the preference:

Time management: For the offline CBT, much time is spend installing the software on each computer and writing down scores after each of the two sections.

There is no central control (start, break and end) which limits the CBT centre to just a place.

If any computer goes off, the candidate using offline CBT will have to restart the exam.

With the online, however, candidate can go through the entire questions of the first two subjects of the examination at the first instance and decide which one to start with.

Candidate can switch from one computer to another to continue from where s/he stops in case of power failure, faulty computer or poor internet connection.

Candidates have the opportunity of practising with the LEC past exams questions in real time to improve their performance.

With internet connection, LEC online CBT can be accessed through computers, tabs, phones - anytime, anywhere in the whole world.

LEC 2019 CBT was totally online with forty-nine candidates. With this improvement there is hope that many more candidates will opt for CBT in the next edition - both in Lagos and in other states.

Production of the LEC Structure draft:-

We submitted a draft of LEC Structure to LEAMSP NEC/State Chairmen for necessary input and approval. It is our hope that when this becomes operational, LEC administration will be much better

Award of Excellence:

For the first time, the best candidate in each of the leading 3 states partaking in the exam is awarded a certificate of excellence in any of the following three categories:- Gold, Silver, Bronze - in addition to some gift(s) solely meant for the candidates. Each of schools that produce the candidates is also awarded a certificate of excellence.
