PASSAGE B

God once promised an elderly lady that He would visit her that day. So she got ready by scrubbing, cleaning, polishing, dusting, and putting everything in order. Then she sat down and waited for God to come. Suddenly someone knocked. She raced to the door, quickly pulled it open but to her surprise, she saw just a poor beggar standing outside. "No, not today," the lady said, "for heaven's sake get along with you... I am waiting for God to come any minute now... I can't be bothered with you." The beggar left as hungry as he had come. A bit later there was another knock. The lady opened the door even faster than before. A poor old man stood there. "Sorry," said the lady, "I can't take care of you today." With that she slammed the door in his face. Quite a bit later someone again knocked at the door. Again it was a ragged hungry beggar. She sent him off empty-handed and sat down to wait. Evening came on and still there was no sign of God. Finally she went to bed with a heavy heart.
